3) Summer Nights

Funded by the Department of Conservation & Recreation, Parent Villages is able to offer fun and educational summer programming for your youth during the evenings between July and August. Our Youth Village Builders workshops are an extension of the Summer Nights program, and they're designed to help your kids learn new skills, express themselves creatively, and boost their independence.

4) Youth Village Leadership Program

The Youth Leadership Program will empower young people to develop essential leadership skills, engage with their communities, and cultivate personal and professional growth. Through workshops, group activities, and real-world experiences, participants will enhance their communication, collaboration, and critical thinking abilities. This program will prepare teens to become leaders within their schools, communities, and beyond.

Program Goals

- Build self-confidence and leadership capabilities.
- Develop problem-solving and decision-making skills.
- Foster teamwork and collaboration.
- Encourage community involvement and social responsibility.
- Promote personal growth and self-awareness.
